Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer text file promotes and supports the coercive exploitation of children for sexual purposes and is therefore deemed to be objectionable under s3(2) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 (FVPC Act). It is a story that salaciously describes the sexual abuse of children and is intended to arouse people with this sexual interest. An objectionable classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression as expressed in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 but this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications falling under s3(2) be deemed objectionable.
